

Agreement of Amity, Cooperation, and Partnership
Social Welfare Corporation “Akanekai,” Fukuoka Prefecture, Japan
Rajanukul Institute, Kingdom of Thailand

Social Welfare Corporation “Akanekai” (Japan) and Rajanukul Institute, Department of Mental Health (Kingdom of Thailand) hereby enter into this Agreement of Amity, Cooperation, and Partnership (hereafter referred to as “Agreement”).

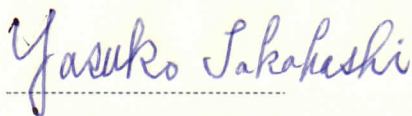

The aim of this Agreement is to respect the human rights of people with disabilities, the elderly, and children, and to improve their welfare. It also aims to expand the international perspective of both parties, promote broad business cooperation, foster the spirit of self-help and self-reliance, and encourage social participation by establishing amity, mutual understanding, and trust among the users of both facilities and the persons concerned.

We firmly believe that this Agreement behooves both parties and all people, including people with disabilities, the elderly, and children, to live together embracing the spirit of amity and cooperation
